Calling all Giants fans:
Limited-edition card
set commemorates Giants basketball history

Marion Community Schools is partnering with some of our outstanding alumni to provide a special opportunity to fans of Giants basketball.

On Feb. 20, 2026, at the Marion Giants vs. Lebanon game at the Bill Green Athletic Arena at MHS, there will be a very special giveaway to the first 2,500 Marion Giants fans who arrive, sponsored by Dr. Courtney Gorman, MHS Class of 1979.

The giveaway will feature an exclusive 54-card set honoring some of our all-time Marion Giants basketball greats. This collectible set has been created by the team at Panini America, where Robert J. Hull, MHS Class of 1991, is the current CFO. This project is a testament to the creativity, skill, and generosity of our amazing alumni!

The set will feature: Marion's State Championship teams from 1926, 1975, 1976, 1985, 1986, 1987, 2000, and 2016

Every MHS basketball player who has been named an Indiana All-Star Hall of Fame coaches

Marion media icons Giant donors who have made major contributions to enhance Marion Giants athletics

Some other incredible surprises! This limited-edition set will undoubtedly be a hit with Giants fans, said Mark Fauser, Creative Development Director for Marion Community Schools, who has been helping to lead the project.

"Robert and his team at Panini outdid themselves with these gorgeous cards," Fauser said. "If you like basketball, history, the Marion Giants, or are a collector like me, I would strongly recommend you get the Bill Green Arena early on Feb. 20! These cards are sure to be a valuable collector's item. Thanks to Courtney, Gorman & Bunch, and Robert and Panini for this exciting gift to Marion fans!"

And to make the night even more special, there will be legends in the house, including Dave Colescott, Jeff Todd, James Blackmon, and Kyle Persinger to name a few, for those who may be looking for autograph opportunities. We'll also have special guests here too, including Bill Green's family and the grandson of 1926 State Champion Coach Eugene Thomas, who is flying in from New Mexico to be a part of this special event.

Don't miss this historic opportunity, a new way to celebrate the Giant tradition of excellence!

Angels watching over us

By Teresa LeNeave
leneave2@comcast.net

Until I fell off a City Scooter while on vacation in Denver, Colorado, I had no concept of the impact a fall can have on a person’s life. I’m ashamed to say, in July 2025, when my family doctor said, “You’re in very good health, but the older you get, the more you’ll have to be careful about falling”, I almost laughed. My immediate, and somewhat proud response, was: “Well, I’m not worried about that because my muscles are strong and I don’t think I’ll be falling in the near future.”

I didn’t take ignorance into consideration. Why would someone, my age, get on an electric City Scooter anyway? I did, and the MRI showed I had torn my hamstring from the bone. I spent three days in the hospital in Denver. It took eight days before I could raise my leg enough to put it on a pillow by myself. On the tenth day, I could get out of bed by myself but it was eleven days before I could walk just a couple steps without a walker. On the 13th day, I felt like a miracle had happened. I was extremely slow, but was able to take care of my basic needs without help. It has now started my fourth week and I’m so excited to be able to sit without tremendous pain.

The amazing thing is that for almost two weeks I had to have someone do everything for me and miraculously on the 12th day, everything began to get better day-by-day. I attribute that healing process to God’s divine intervention and lots of prayer from lots of Christians. I still need help with some things and it remains to be a challenge. I’m so grateful for where I am. In fact, from where I was, to where I am, I know God’s love and mercy was instrumental in my healing.

I read where celebrity chef, Guy Fiera, fell down some stairs in November, tearing his quadricep muscle in half. He said it was one of the worse things he’s ever gone through. I agree. This is one of the most painful things I’ve ever experienced. But I’m on the mend and the long-term process of physical therapy must take place if I don’t want to limp around the rest of my pet. In any case, it’s a rude awakening when it happens to you.

The point of my telling you this is that we think it can’t happen to us. It can. We take so much for granted when, in fact, we should look at “normal every day” activities as a privilege. It’s God’s blessings that we get out of bed, without help, in the morning. I cling to the scriptures, “He sent His Word and healed them” (Ps 107:20) and “Healing is the children’s bread” (Matt. 15:21-28).

If you’re going through something that’s new and painful remember God is with you to heal and restore you. “With us is the Lord our God to help us” (2 Chron 32:8). I honestly believe there are angels watching over us.

HEAVEN’S SAVINGS ACCOUNT

Bro. Brandon G. Bramlett
Bandana Baptist Church

The young man complied although he did not completely comprehend his father’s request. If he wished to continue living at home, he had to stick with his dad’s straightforward stipulations: hold down a job and pay rent. So, he paid his parents a substantial sum every month, hard-earned money that might otherwise have gone toward video games, upgrading his smartphone, and acquiring frivolous things from Amazon. Eventually, he decided to move out and buy his first home. It was then that his father revealed a long-time-coming surprise: “Son, I’ve been putting all of the money you’ve paid your mother and I into a savings account for the down payment on your house.”

His sacrifices literally paid off. Though he likely doubted at times whether it was a waste of time and money, he ended up paying himself. And similarly, the sacrifices we make for the Lord and His kingdom are everlasting investments. What we give up for Christ—as costly as it may be on earth—is sent ahead of us and reserved in an eternal “savings account,” to be inherited when we leave this world to live in a “house not made with hands” (2 Cor. 5:1). And this account is insured by the greatest “FDIC” of all: the Father’s Deposits in Christ.

According to Jesus, we rob ourselves of heavenly rewards when we settle for a comfortable and complacent life where our time, talents, and treasures are spent on ourselves (cf. Mark 8:34-36). But when we give until it hurts, serve when it interrupts our schedule, and choose costly obedience over convenient sins, we grow “rich toward God” (Luke 12:21) and stockpile treasure in heaven: “Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal” (Matt. 6:19-20, KJV). Christ also assured that we accrue “interest” on what we sacrifice: “Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the age to come eternal life” (Luke 18:29-30). In other words, the Lord will not only reimburse what we give up on earth—He will infinitely multiply it in eternity.

Still, just as the son paid rent to please his father rather than secure a reward, we must bless others, give our all for God’s kingdom, and treat every day as a sacrificial altar—not to manipulate God for blessings, but simply to please Him. The Lord owes us nothing, yet He promises to reward our faithfulness with “an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you” (1 Peter 1:4). Are you storing up treasures in heaven?

My hunting season is over. I have scheduled a couple of fishing trips, but they are a few weeks away. Until then, I am surrounded by everything man-made. I don’t mind this too much after a season of God-made stuff, but I need to return to the God-made stuff quickly. But not for the hunting or fishing, but for the God of the stuff. You see, most of the time when I go to the woods I am going for the purpose of pursuit – whether that is for the purpose of scouting or hunting. When I’m in the woods I’m thinking about deer or turkey. When I’m on the water, it’s usually with a fishing rod.

The point is that while I’m surrounded by the very handiwork of God when I am outside, I am focused on a more mundane activity. And sometimes (not all the time) my purpose doesn’t line up with my place. Let me explain.

What I need right now more than anything, is to be surrounded by creation for the purpose of being with and hearing from the Creator. My purpose needs to line up with my place. And yours does too. As you know because you hear it from me all the time, creation is the first way God spoke to his people, and it is still the first way He does it.

Sure, the Bible is OUTDOOR

Truths

Creation is how God speaks to us what we as Christians look to more than anything. But creation is how God speaks to believers and unbelievers all over the world. It is God confronting us head on with something so great that we must contemplate His desire to include us. And those of us who are Christians need to lean into hearing God through creation as well as through the scriptures. But to do that, we have to get in creation for this specific purpose. So, here’s what I’m going to do and maybe it’s something that you might want to do. Go to the woods or get in your boat and go to the lake, for the express purpose of hearing what God might want to say to you through His many masterpieces.

When you get there simply ask God, “What do you want to say to me while I’m here?” And then, shut up, look at all the wonders around you, and listen. And then be able to answer this question should someone ask, and your life depended on it. “What was the one thing God wanted you to know from your time in the woods or on the water?” Be able to answer that question. If you and I do this, we will have perfectly used creation for the primary purpose it was meant.

And I can’t help to believe the man-made world we are returning to, will be filled with a greater joy as well.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Clearing up

It is my desire, as the search for a new Health Officer ensues, to eliminate any questions or speculation behind the resignation of Dr. Woods.

As you may or may not be aware, this past year has held significant challenges for me both within the county government system and outside of this system. My granddaughter was born late 2024 with severe medical complexity due to a genetic diagnosis and her disability is profound and life-limiting. My priority is to accompany my daughter and her family, who reside in MI, well. I have found the weight of this personal situation combined with the demands generated in a political environment to be great and costly to me. At this season of life, the role of Health Officer is optional for me and not a necessary position. I am no longer able to pay the price of continuing.

I entered this role with vision and purpose. The people I rub shoulders with within the department, those who are in the trenches doing the work, are wonderful and dedicated individuals. I have deep respect for them. I greatly value the leadership of Tara Street as the administrator. Her role is one of importance in the department and county. Tara carries the workload required that enables Grant County to receive the HFI financial resources. Although the amount given to all counties is reduced, HFI money is freeing up funds to be directed toward other priorities in Grant County.

I ask you to work alongside the commissioners to find a replacement that is suitable to all, with a sense of urgency. I ask that arrangements are made by Jan. 30th. 2026.

I also want to let you know how deeply I appreciated your work last night. I noticed how all were willing to adjust your schedules to help when more clarity was needed. I value the collective wisdom of the board.

Thank you for your thoughtfulness and care for our community. I hope to see this work continue which promotes the holistic well-being of our citizens.

With high regard,
Brenda K. Woods MD FAAFP

Arts Place presents Proximity & im(Permanence) by Kate Homan

Brief description of performance/ event: Proximity & im(Permanence) explores the question, “How do we face what overwhelms us?” The artist commented on this saying, “Painting block by tiny block reminds me that we meet whatever comes not just with grand and immediate gestures but also with ongoing, deliberate steps, making perhaps small but intentional contributions to progress every single day.”

This gallery show features paintings in Kate’s own unique style as well as hand bound books, etched glass wear, prints of original art, and handmade greeting cards. We invite you to come in and shop her merchandise.
